PART 2 | COUNTERTOP SURFACES

Stone Countertops Disclosure

NATURAL & ENGINEERED SURFACE ACKNOWLEDGMENT

This portion of the acknowledgment applies to countertop surfaces supplied through EZ-Kabinetry & Countertops, including engineered quartz and natural stone such as granite, quartzite, limestone, and similar slab materials. It does not replace the written warranty or care instructions for the selected product.

STONE VARIATION IS EXPECTED AND IS NOT A DEFECT

Natural stone is created by nature, and every slab is unique. Engineered quartz is manufactured, but it may also contain intentional movement and slab-to-slab variation. Color, shade, veining, pattern, texture, sheen, mineral markings, and other visual characteristics may vary within a slab and from samples, photographs, or displays.

Seams may be visible, and colors, veins, or patterns may not align perfectly across a seam. These ordinary material and installation characteristics are not considered defects.

COMMON WARRANTY BOUNDARIES

Any warranty for the selected surface is limited to its written terms. Common exclusions include inherent color or pattern variation; visible seams or imperfect pattern alignment; staining, etching, scratching, chipping, heat or impact damage; chemical damage; misuse; improper cleaning or maintenance; structural movement; and labor or work involving cabinets, plumbing, tile, flooring, appliances, or other property.

NO EXACT MATCH PROMISE

A sample, photograph, display, or prior installation is only a general representation. An exact match in color, movement, pattern, texture, or sheen is not promised.

HOMEOWNER CARE DUTIES

The Homeowner must inspect the installed surface promptly, wipe spills without delay, use cutting boards and heat protection, avoid harsh chemicals and heavy impact, and follow the selected product's cleaning, care, and sealing instructions when sealing is recommended. Do not sit, stand, or place excessive loads on the surface.

SEPARATE MANUFACTURER CLAIMS

Any manufacturer warranty is separate. The Homeowner is responsible for locating the current warranty, registering the product if required, preserving proof of purchase, and pursuing the claim directly with the manufacturer. EZ-Kabinetry & Countertops does not guarantee the manufacturer's coverage, approval, remedy, timing, or costs.
